

*Look for these stickers on spines of books to help find what you need!

Stickers on Spines

Instructional Resources for Grades 1-6

Patricia Hunter Standish
Curriculum Library
The College of Saint Rose
432 Western Avenue
Albany, New York 12203
(518) 458- 5311 circulation desk

<http://library.strose.edu/CL/CurriculumLibrary.htm>

Collections

- Picture books (EAS) including Big Books
- Information books (Juv) in all curriculum areas
- Touhey Collection (multicultural picture books, fiction and non-fiction books from philanthropist Charles Touhey)
- Fiction (Fic)
- Textbooks (Grades 1-6)
- Science kits such as Rocks and Minerals, Classroom Plants, Animal Behavior, and more!
- Reading kits, High Interest Low Level books, and Reading Recovery books
- Math kits and manipulatives and Social Studies kits
- NYS Syllabi & Curriculum Guides
- NYS Teacher Certification Exam Practice Guides

SPECIAL FEATURES FOR OUR TEACHERS & TEACHERS-TO-BE!

- Board Maker Graphics database containing picture communication symbols (available on computer next to printer, ask at circulation desk for disk)
- Sizzix Machine (die cutters used to make bulletin board displays)
- Lesson planning books for all subjects (circulating Reference Collection) including graphic organizers, activities and thematic webs for all core curricula

Curriculum Library

Materials 1-6

The Curriculum Library offers a variety of materials for students in the field of Education at the College of Saint Rose. The Reference Collection, textbooks, kits, and other hands-on materials provide students with resources to use during their student teaching placements, and to add to their classroom presentations and unit plans.

